

NEWS BULLETIN

Ushering in a new era of AI

GIRIJANANDA
CHOWDHURY
UNIVERSITY

X

AZARA, July 28: Girijananda Chowdhury University (GCU) has solidified its adherence towards AI and collaborative activities by signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Assam Agricultural University (AAU), Jorhat, Assam. The MoU was signed by Professor Dipankar Saha, Registrar, GCU and Dr. Mrinal Saikia, Associate Director Research, AAU in an event that took place on the premises of AAU, Jorhat. The collaboration is set to engage both the organizations in research collaboration for advancing crop disease detection and diagnosis using AI based technologies. The broad objective of the research collaboration is also to promote multidisciplinary research involving various disciplines of Engineering in solving problems of agriculture. Professor Kandarpa Das, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Dr. Bidyut Chandan Deka, Vice Chancellor, AAU, Jorhat and Dr. Sanjay Kumar Chetia, Chief Scientist, AAU - Assam Rice Research Institute (ARRI), Titabar and other dignitaries were present during the event at the Assam Agricultural University (AAU), Jorhat.

Signing of MoU between GCU and Assam Rice Research Institute, AAU