

NEWS BULLETIN

Girijananda Chowdhury University ushers Euphuism 2024

AZARA, January 31: Girijananda Chowdhury University organized the glitzy annual fest “Euphuism 2024” themed ‘EEKSHA’ from 30th Jan - 1st Feb, 2024. The three day festival will comprise various cultural, literary and technical events, and Glitters - an inter college fashion show taking the centre stage as the main attraction. The inaugural session heralded the commencement of the university's annual festival, "Euphuism 2024". The ceremony united esteemed guests, dignitaries, teaching and non-teaching staff of GCU, participants and enthusiastic attendees from different schools and colleges marking the initiation of a momentous event. The event began with lighting of the auspicious lamp by the guests and dignitaries. Mr. Jasodaranjan Das, President, Shrimanta Shankar Academy Society extended warm greetings to all attendees in the inaugural speech. Prof. Kandarpa Das, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, GCU emphasized the significance of the event and highlighted the objectives of the Annual Fest. Distinguished Chief Guest, Mr. Bhaskar Jyoti Mahanta, Former Director General of Assam Police, addressed the young generation on the current scenario of the society and the new challenges and opportunities of Artificial Intelligence. He eloquently shared his firsthand experiences of the alienation faced by certain communities in Assam, such as the Mishings residing on Majuli island, leading to the attraction of the youth toward militancy. He recounted his personal encounters in effectively managing critical situations through social reconciliation. The opening ceremony included expressions of gratitude to the event's sponsors and partners, recognizing their invaluable support. The closing remarks were delivered by Dr. Basab Das, Faculty Convenor expressing gratitude to everyone involved. He expressed gratitude to the University fraternity, sponsors, collaborators and the participants of the events. He spoke on the upcoming events of Euphuism and encouraged the participants of GCU and other schools, colleges and universities to actively participate in the diverse range of activities. The inaugural session concluded with the rendition of the state anthem followed by enthusiastic and mesmerizing performances of dance and musical concert by the students of Girijananda Chowdhury University.

Lighting of the auspicious lamp.

Mr. Jasodaranjan Das, President, SSA Society extended warm greetings to all attendees.

Prof. Kandarpa Das, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, GCU emphasizing the importance of Euphuism.

Mr. Bhaskar Jyoti Mahanta, Former Director General of Assam Police, delivering an insightful speech.

Sharing a light hearted moment.

Dynamic rhythms of Bihu dance capturing the essence.

A symphony of music and rhythm.