

NEWS BULLETIN

An Educational Camp by GCU and Dispur College: Enriching and Inspiring Young Minds

AZARA, February 23: An Educational Camp was organised by the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, Girijananda Chowdhury University, Guwahati, with the initiative of Dept. of Political Science and Dept. History on 17th February, 2024 at Garbhanga Eco Camp. The meet was held in collaboration with Dispur College, Guwahati in pursuance of the MoU signed by GCU with the latter recently. 29 students of GCU along with 7 faculty members from the School of Humanities and Social Sciences participated in the camp. From Dispur College 45 students and 5 faculty members attended the meet. The meeting was anchored by Dr. Bhaswati Sarmah, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science. It began with a welcome address delivered by Mr. Dwipen Das, Deputy Registrar, GCU. The Dean of the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, GCU, Prof. Shantanu Chakravarty addressed the gathering and apprised the participants about various courses offered in the School of Humanities and Social Sciences, GCU. Prof. Kandarpa Das, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, GCU delivered a speech where he spoke at length about the significance of NEP, 2020. Prof. Kandarpa Das highlighted the efforts of GCU in implementing NEP in GCU. Prof. Jayanta Krishna Sarmah, Dean, Faculty of Arts, Gauhati University also addressed the participants extending valuable advice to the students. The students of both GCU and Dispur College participated actively by speaking on various socio-economic and political issues of importance. The students from both institutions performed songs and dances as part of cultural activities, showcasing their respective talents. The students also participated in the fun games conducted by Dr. Anisha Bordoloi, Assistant Professor, Department of History, GCU. The meet was concluded with a vote of thanks offered by Ms. Ankita Saikia, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, GCU. The educational camp with its blend of academic discourse served as a vibrant platform for fostering intellectual growth and camaraderie among students and faculty from Girijananda Chowdhury University and Dispur College.

Felicitating the faculty members of Dispur College with a token of love.

Prof. Jayanta Krishna Sarmah extending valuable advice to the students.

The students from GCU and Dispur College actively participating in cultural activities and fun games.

NEWS BULLETIN

A Scholarly Homage: GCU and the Folklore Society of Assam Commemorate Dr. Prabin Chandra Das

AZARA, February 23: Girijananda Chowdhury University, Assam in collaboration with the Folklore Society of Assam, organized a memorial lecture on February 16, 2024, at the GCU campus, Azara in a heartfelt tribute to the eminent folklorist Late Dr. Prabin Chandra Das. Prof. Kandarpa Das, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, Girijananda Chowdhury University, Sri Gautam Sarma, Executive Editor of Amar Asom, Dr. Mrinal Bora, President, Folklore Society of Assam, Dr. Karuna Kanta Kakoti, Secretary of the Folklore Society of Assam, Prof. Anil Boro, Head of the Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University, Prof. Kishor Bhattacharya from the Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University, Prof. Dilip Kumar Kalita, Director of ABILAC and Dr. Anima Choudhary, a renowned singer graced the event with their presence. Faculty members and research scholars from Gauhati University and Girijananda Chowdhury University joined the event to create a scholarly and vibrant atmosphere. The memorial lecture adorned with talks, folk songs and demonstrations of music provided a comprehensive and engaging experience to celebrate the life and contributions of the revered folklorist Dr. Prabin Chandra Das. The event served as a platform for sharing insights, preserving memories and fostering a deeper understanding of folk traditions to reflect the enduring impact of Dr. Prabin Chandra Das on the field of folklore studies.

Dr. Karuna Kanta Kakoti, Sri Gautam Sarma and Prof. Kandarpa Das sharing valuable insights to Commemorate Dr. Prabin Chandra Das.

Felicitating Prof. Dilip Kumar Kalita, Director of ABILAC.

Dr. Anima Choudhary and Hiraakjyoti Sarmah performing folk songs and demonstrating music performing folk songs.

The attendees of the session.

NEWS BULLETIN

SOPS-Tezpur Annual Sports Meet: KreedaSangam'24

AZARA, February 23: The Annual Sports KreedaSangam'24 meet of our college unfolded with great enthusiasm and fervor from 6th - 8th February 2024. The event witnessed active participation with students showcasing their sporting prowess in diverse range of sports. Organized under the guidance of dedicated faculty members and with the support of the student body, KreedaSangam'24 aimed to promote physical fitness, teamwork, and sportsmanship among students. The event commenced with a captivating march past by the four competing houses – Brahmputra, Subansiri, Dhansiri, and Barak. Mr. Ganesh Dutta, a distinguished sports personality known for his achievements as a NSNIS coach, national, international and SGFI player, graced the occasion as the esteemed guest. His presence added prestige to the event, inspiring participants to strive for excellence. The success of KreedaSangam'24 owes much to the diligent efforts of the organizing committee led by Sports Convenor, Dr. Ravi Kumar Rajan. A total of 36 events were organized, catering to a diverse range of sports and athletic abilities. These included traditional sports like cricket, football, volleyball, kabaddi, and kho-kho, as well as track and field events such as discus throw, shotput, high jump, long jump, and various running races. Additionally, there were niche events like tennikoit, slow cycle race, arm wrestling, and tug of war. The competitive spirit was palpable as students passionately competed in their respective events, displaying exceptional skills and determination. As the curtains closed on another successful edition of our annual sports meet, School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Tezpur Campus looks forward to nurture the sporting talents of the students and continue the legacy of KreedaSangam in the years to come.

Unfurling the flag on the eve of the Annual Sports KreedaSangam'24

Prof. Abdul Baquee Ahmed, Principal SOPS-Tezpur delivering the Inaugural Speech.

Mr. Ganesh Dutta motivating the students to strive for students.

A glimpse of march past competition.

The students displaying competitive spirits and skills in teamwork and sportsmanship.

The students actively participating in diverse range of sports and events.