

NEWS BULLETIN

Exploring Frontiers: National Conference on Novel Therapeutics at GCU Tezpur

AZARA, February 26: Girijananda Chowdhury University's Tezpur Campus played host to a significant event in the realms of chemical and pharmaceutical sciences with the One-Day National Conference on "Frontiers in Chemical and Pharmaceutical Sciences for the Development of Novel Therapeutics-2024" organized by the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences-Tezpur, in collaboration with the Association of Chemistry Teachers (ACT), Mumbai, and Rangapara College, Rangapara. The conference aimed to explore cutting-edge research and advancements in the field.

Auspicious lamp lighting ceremony in the inaugural session.

Esteemed guests of the conference.

Prof. Bhanu Sahu, Dean of School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, GCU presenting a token of appreciation to the keynote speaker, Dr. Nima D. Namsa.

Dr. Rinku Baishya, Senior Scientist CSIR-NEIST, Jorhat delivering his scientific talk.

A total of 56 poster presentations and 13 oral presentations were delivered, showcasing the depth and breadth of research being conducted across the nation. With over 200 delegates from various renowned institutes viz. Dibrugarh University, Dibrugarh; Tezpur University, Tezpur; Defence Research Laboratory, Tezpur; University of Calcutta, West Bengal; Mata Gujri College of Pharmacy, Bihar; Gautam Institute of Pharmacy, Bihar; Royal Global University, Guwahati; Chaitanya (Deemed to be) University, Telangana; NETES Institute of Pharmaceutical Science, Guwahati; Assam Down Town University; Guwahati; NEF College of Pharmaceutical Education & Research, Nagaon, etc. participated in the conference and took part in fruitful discussions, networking, and the exchange of ideas. Ms. Pakter Niri, Senior Research Fellow at DRL-Tezpur, won the best poster presentation, followed by Ms. Nirmita Kashyap of GCU Tezpur and Ms. Tuhinaa Priyam Bordoloi of Royal Global University. On the other hand, Mr. Subramanyam Polopalli, Senior Research Fellow from DRL-Tezpur, secured the title of best oral presentation; Mr. Ajay Kakati, Senior Research Fellow from DRL-Tezpur, secured second place; and Mr. Deepjyoti Das, Research Scholar, CSIR-NEIST, was awarded the third place.

Dr. Palash Moni Saikia, Principal Darrang College giving an insightful talk on the development of Novel therapeutics.

Ms. Pakter Niri receiving the best poster presentation award.

Mr. Joshodarajan Das presenting the best oral presenter award to Mr. Subramanyam Polopalli.

NEWS BULLETIN

Rongmon-2024

AZARA, February 26: Girijananda Chowdhury University's Tezpur campus witnessed the vibrant celebration of its 2nd cultural fest, "RONGMON 2024," hosted by the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences on 9th & 10th February 2024. The festivities commenced with a lively cultural rally on February 9th, denoting the commencement of the fest and showcasing the rich tapestry of cultures, traditions, freedom fighters, cosplay, and more. Prof. (Dr.) Abdul Baquee Ahmed, Principal School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, GCU Tezpur campus, flagged off the rally, which stretched from Swahid Bakori Playground in Majgaon to Church Field in Tezpur town.

Colors of Tradition: A Cultural Parade Through Time

To accentuate the main cultural highlights of RONGMON 2024, the inaugural ceremony was inaugurated by Chief guest, Dr. Karuna Hazarika, Principal TMCH, along with esteemed guests, Dr. Ranjan Kalita, Principal, Rangapara College, and Mr. Amitabh Gupta, Associate Manager, HR, Dabur India Limited, Tezpur. Following it, a series of engaging programs were organized, including solo singing and dancing competitions, diverse student performances, and the captivating "The Walk Fusion". Rongmon-2024 concluded with an awe-inspiring live performance by Meghali Borokha, who left an indelible impact on all individuals with her stunning performances.

Dr. Karuna Hazarika, Chief Guest delivering his speech during the inaugural ceremony.

Bihu dance by the students of GCU Tezpur campus.

The Walk Fusion : Students Shine in a Fashion Extravaganza.

Heartfelt Melody by Meghali Borokha Resonating with Emotion.

Eloquent expressions : Student's Performance at solo Dance Competition.