"GCU Makes Waves at Assam Book Fair 2023-24: A Showcase of Academic Excellence and Artistic Brilliance"

AZARA, January 10: In a remarkable showcase of educational prowess, Girijananda Chowdhury University left an indelible mark at the Assam Book Fair 2023-24, held at Guwahati's Chandmari Engineering field from December 29 to January 9. The twelve-day extravaganza emerged as a crucial platform for students and aspirants hailing from Assam and neighbouring states. Girijananda Chowdhury University actively participated in the fair, setting up a commercial stall to raise awareness about its innovative programs and offering on-the-spot registration facilities. The response was overwhelming, with over 100 plus registrations received during the event. Visitors were enlightened about the university's commitment to implementing the National Education Policy (NEP) of 2020 and the myriad courses it offers. The coordination and execution of the university's participation were efficiently handled by the faculty members and staff from various departments, ensuring a seamless experience for the attendees. As part of the university's engagement, a group of talented students took part in the cultural competition held on January 8, 2024.

The cultural competition featured diverse categories such as solo song, classical dance, mono-act, band performance, Bihu dance, and semi-classical fusion dance. Girijananda Chowdhury University students showcased their artistic flair, capturing the audience's attention and appreciation. Notably, Ms. Upashana Kalita (4th semester, CE) and Ms. Sohini Roy (6th semester, CSE) clinched the prestigious Best Performance Awards for their outstanding contributions in mono-act and Kathak dance, respectively. The awards not only reflect the students' dedication and talent but also underscore the university's commitment to nurturing holistic development. Girijananda Chowdhury University continues to be a beacon of excellence, providing students with opportunities to excel not only academically but also in extracurricular pursuits, as witnessed at the Assam Book Fair 2023-24.
