

GIRIJANANDA
CHOWDHURY
UNIVERSITY

01 MARCH 2024

Volume - XIII, Issue 1

NEWS BULLETIN

Girijananda Chowdhury University Commemorates National Science Day

AZARA, March 01: Girijananda Chowdhury University Celebrated The National Science Day honoring the achievements of Indian science and commemorating the legacy of Sir CV Raman. With the theme "Indigenous Technologies for Viksit Bharat," the event aimed to underscore the importance of homegrown innovations in driving India towards progress and self-sufficiency. Distinguished guests, including Hon'ble Chancellor Prof. Jayanta Deka Sir, Vice Chancellor Prof. Kandarpa Das, Registrar Dr. Dipankar Saha, Deans, Heads of Departments (HODs), Faculty Members, and Students, graced the occasion, adding to the event's significance.

Dr. Pradyumna Goswami inspiring audience with visionary talk on enhancing life with Science.

Interactive session sparks ideas and insights at National Science Day celebration.

Dignitaries engrossed in Speaker's enlightening presentation.

A key highlight of the celebration was the insightful talk by invited speaker, Dr. Pradyumna Goswami, a prominent columnist, media panelist, social commentator, and educator. Dr. Goswami shared profound insights into the significance of indigenous technologies and their pivotal role in shaping a prosperous and self-reliant India. Approximately 100 enthusiastic students actively participated in the event, along with faculty members, showcasing their keen interest in scientific endeavours and innovative pursuits. The celebration served as a platform to honor the remarkable contributions of Indian scientists and innovators, inspiring the next generation to pursue a path of discovery and innovation. The National Science Day celebration at Girijananda Chowdhury University concluded on a high note, leaving a lasting impact on all participants and reaffirming the university's commitment to fostering a culture of scientific inquiry and innovation.

NEWS BULLETIN

Celebrating Innovation: National Science Day at GCU Tezpur

AZARA, March 01: In commemoration of Dr. C. V. Raman's groundbreaking discovery and his remarkable achievements, the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences at GCU, Tezpur campus, joyously observed National Science Day on February 28, 2024, under the theme "Indigenous Technologies for Viksit Bharat." As part of the celebration, Prof. Abdul Baquee Ahmed, Principal, School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, GCU Tezpur welcomed the students and guests with a speech highlighting about the National Science Day celebration and the contribution of Prof. Raman. A special invited talk was arranged, featuring Dr. Gaurango Chakrabarty, Assistant Professor and Head of the Department of Chemistry at Rangapara College. Dr. Chakrabarty emphasized the significant contributions of Prof. Raman while also shedding light on indigenous innovations aimed at addressing water-related challenges.

Dr. Gaurango Chakrabarty lighting the auspicious lamp accompanied by Prof. (Dr.) Abdul Baquee Ahmed lighting the auspicious lamp.

Furthermore, Dr. Asish Bhaumik, Associate Professor in the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry at GCU-Tezpur campus, organized a quiz competition. Ten teams, each comprising three students, enthusiastically participated in the quiz, adding an element of spirited competition to the event. The first position was backed by Disha Lahon, Mehbiz Hussain and Sweta Saikia of B. Pharm 4th sem. The second prize was awarded to Mehtab Alom, Junali Hial, Ikramul Hoque of D. Pharm 1st Year while the third position was secured by Seemanta N. Das, Eric Barla, Rinkita Roy of B. Pharm 8th sem. the National Science Day celebration at the School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, GCU Tezpur, was a resounding success, honoring the legacy of Dr. C. V. Raman and showcasing the dedication of students and faculty to advancing indigenous technologies for a developed India.

Prof. Ahmed addressing the gathering with his welcome speech.

Triumph of Knowledge: 1st Prize winners of Quiz Competition.

Second rank holders in the Quiz glory.

The team finishing 3rd in the brain storming session.