Celebration of International Women's Day at GCU-Tezpur

TEZPUR, Mar 13: Girijananda Chowdhury University, School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Tezpur Campus celebrated International Women's Day on 8th March, 2025, with a series of meaningful events. The event was collaboratively organized by the Gender Sensitization Cell, Women Cell and Literature Club of GCU-Tezpur showcasing a powerful blend of creativity and inspiration. The celebrations aimed to foster a deeper understanding of gender equality, making it a memorable occasion for all participants. One of the key highlights of the celebration was the Inter-Class Rangoli Competition, which revolved around the theme of Women Empowerment. Students from various semester/year came together to create beautiful and vibrant Rangolis that symbolized strength, independence, and the empowerment of women. Each Rangoli was meticulously crafted, with vibrant colors and intricate patterns representing the different facets of women's empowerment. Another integral part of the celebration was the Letter Writing Competition, where participants were asked to write a letter to a woman who inspires them. The theme of the competition encouraged students to reflect on the powerful influences women have had in their lives-whether through personal connections, role models, or historical figures. The heartfelt letters shared stories of admiration, respect, and gratitude, offering an intimate glimpse into the lives of students and the women who have shaped their thoughts and aspirations. The celebration of International Women's Day at Girijananda Chowdhury University, School of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Tezpur Campus, successfully brought together creativity, reflection, and advocacy for women's rights. Through the Rangoli Competition and Letter Writing Competition, students had the opportunity to express their views on women empowerment in a meaningful and engaging way. The event served as a reminder of the collective responsibility to work toward a world where gender equality is not just a goal but a reality.

The Inter-Class Rangoli Competition saw B. Pharm 2nd Semester emerging as the winner with their vibrant and creative artwork. In the Letter Writing Competition, Sweta Saikia (B. Pharm 6th Sem) secured the first position, followed by Bhaskar Dey (B. Pharm 4th Sem) in second place, and Yanning Pratim Sut (B. Pharm 2nd Sem) in third place. The competitions showcased the students' artistic talent and literary skills, adding to the spirit of creativity and expression.
